

THINGS ARE ABOUT TO GET MILDLY WILD!

James Mustapic Mildly Wild

James Mustapic, winner of the Best Newcomer award at the 2017 Comedy Guild Awards is looking for the wild and dangerous side hidden deep in his personality. Putting aside his shy and timid temperament to become the confident and exhilarant performer he's always wanted to be, James is calling in the big guns of visuals and sound to set his wild side free.

He'll be exploring topics that he's never been comfortable covering before, from his embarrassing body, to his stressful run-ins with his enemies. He'll be entering his repressed memories to shed light on some of the darker tales of his childhood, whilst using exciting multi-media effects to keep the show light and exciting.

Outside of stand-up, James is known for his original video series Repressed Memories on thespinoff.co.nz, unearthing the bizarre and cringeful from New Zealand's TV graveyard, and his expanding YouTube repertoire in his original series Shorty Street Scandal, which involved him critiquing and pulling apart each episode of Shortland Street.

He's not afraid to criticise, and throughout the show he'll share his cutting opinions on everyone and everything including straight men, gay couples, hedgehogs, and "spiritual" people - no one is off the hook. So strap in for an hour of turmoil, hilarity, and maybe a breakdown, because you're in for a Mildly Wild time
