You Won't Believe They're Single

Lana Walters and James Mustapic Jokes B4 Blokes

These two 2016 Raw Quest National Finalists are finally putting their love of comedy before the men in their lives (as they have a habit of disappointing). From stories of one-night stands gone wrong, to trying seduce boys who think they're straight, Lana and James tell all in a hilarious hour of honesty and taking the piss. As well as joking about their horrific encounters with blokes, they'll be sharing stories and joking about some of their most bizarre experiences in life - from how it feels being attacked by a magpie, kids who do 'Road Patrol', and the woes of working in a call-centre.

James of Youtube's Shorty Street Scandal has a satirical, dry style and makes cutting observations which come in surprising contrast to his soft spoken, baby-faced presence. Known for sharing unapologetic stories of people who have done him wrong over the years James doesn't pull any punches and treads the line between polite and risky.

Lana's genuine bubblyness is infectious; you'll love her adorable stories about her unpredictable reactions to what life throws at her. Her relaxed and engaging delivery style lets the audience see deep into her personal life. Nominated for Best Newcomer at 2016's NZ Comedy Guild Awards, she's on a steep trajectory.

"Two of the best young comedians in NZ. Both are very original and genuinely funny" – Brendhan Lovegrove
