

A4 MEDIA RELEASE.

Let's talk about facts, baby!

Tim Müller

Laugh Now, Google Later

--

In a bizarre world of fake news and post-truth politics, one man is taking a stand for the facts. And the LOLs. Mostly the LOLs. But also lots of facts.

Tim Müller's Laugh Now, Google Later is coming to Q Theatre as part of the NZ International Comedy Festival, on May 12th/13th and 19th/20th. It's a stand-up comedy show, but it's also a manifesto against madness; an attempt to turn the tables on a world determined to swallow its own lies. It also features jokes about Mexican waves, eyebrow-threading and Hans Christian Andersen's The Princess and the Pea. Because someone's gotta talk about that stuff too.

Scientist by day, comedian by night, quite good at making pancakes by morning; Tim Müller will be pointing the microscope at everything from nursery rhymes to the UN Security Council in search of the hilarious truth. There won't be any pancakes. I'm not sure why I even mentioned that.

"Hilarious musical comedy and quirky dry humour" – NZ Herald

"Drew a tear to my eye!" – The Speakeasy

"Nice & friendly trader, highly recommended to all. +++" – Wayne from Invercargill
