

3 Legends of NZ comedy – 3 nights

comedy.co.nz productions presents

Corbett – Ego – Henwood – and a bit of Hurley in

3's COMPANY

They hang out every Friday on TV's '7DAYS' but Jeremy Corbett, Paul Ego and Dai Henwood rarely get to keep each other company on a live comedy stage these days due to their many commitments elsewhere.

So, for the first time in the annual NZ International Comedy Festival these 3 legends of local comedy will share the stand-up stage at Q Theatre for 3 nights only. Well almost because Dai Henwood is otherwise engaged on Saturday so Ben Hurley will be coming off the bench.

Only a handful of the comedians who laid the foundations of the local industry, the Comedy Festival and the home of live comedy at The Classic, are still active on the circuit today.

But those that are at the top of their game setting benchmarks that the new comedians aspire to. They also enjoy a big following from loyal local audiences so early bookings are recommended for these shows.
