

Juan Vesuvius: I Am Your DeeJay - Press Release

Superstar disc-jockey Juan Vesuvius brings his turntables to Auckland to deliver the greatest and strangest DJ set you've ever experienced.

Explore the history of House music via disco, the gay rights explosion of New York in the 60's, and a whole lot of other stuff with a bona fide musical legend. But why does he need so much towelling? And what really happened between him and David Guetta? Vesuvius is an eruption that cannot be plugged.

The hit show of the 2017 Edinburgh Fringe arrives in Auckland this May for 3 nights only after sell out seasons in London and Bristol.

Created and performed by ex-Auckland actor and comedian Barnie Duncan, now living in Melbourne, this show about club music is going to be making its Auckland debut in an actual club - the infamous Whammy Bar on K'Road.

OFFICIAL SELECTION: The List's Best Late-Night Shows of the Fringe

WINNER: The Skinny Fringe Genius Award, Edinburgh Fringe

NOMINEE: Best Newcomer - Melbourne International Comedy Festival

"Deserving of comedy superstar status... a hilarious and genuinely enlightening hour"

Broadway Baby

"Hugely enjoyable and gleefully surreal in equal measure"

The List

"Impressive vinyl mixing, a knowledgeable history of house music, serious socio-political bits plus a lengthy takedown of David Guetta. Well, who wouldn't want to see that?"
