

Sarcastic Sex Worker and a Billy T Nominee Return From Sold Out Shows

Lucy Roche & Ray O'Leary Young, Dumb and Full of Comedy

--

Ray O'Leary (2017 Billy T Nominee, Writer for 7 Days) and Lucy Roche (as seen on Seven Sharp, Banter, winner of the Raw Comedy Quest 2016) are back from sold out shows at last year's festival to bring you an hour jam-packed full of jokes.

Ray O'Leary (Best Newcomer – NZ Comedy Guild Awards), an overeducated philosophy nerd with a hilariously dry style is teaming up with Lucy Roche (Best show nominee, Wellington Comedy Awards 2017) who, when she isn't running a hilarious twitter account, is sick of the assumptions made about her as a young female, and especially as a sex worker

While they may be from different walks of life what they share in common is a unique crafting of punchline-heavy comedy, filled with hilarious observations that covers everything from dating to politics, the mundane to the morbid, delivered in a deadpan style.

Lucy Roche - "We were laughing constantly with her brute honesty and clever turn of phrase" – Art Murmurs

Ray O'Leary – "Great mastery of call-backs, some wonderful performance based jokes that require some deft acting skills and some excellent punch-lines which he milks to their maximum without going overboard" – The Ruminator
